God's Body Shop

Often times you see a big expensive truck pulling a nice trailer with a fifty or more year old rusty, nasty looking vehicle on the trailer. If you followed that truck, trailer, and junky old vehicle you might see it delivered to a shop where the damaged and non-functioning parts are stripped off, and repaired or replaced. The rust and dents are sanded and repaired. New paint and chrome are applied. The vehicle is polished and shined. Then a beautifully restored vehicle is rolled out of the shop and everyone is truly amazed at the transformation and the unique skill of the restorer.

It's the same when God is allowed to work in any life. Some lives are in worse shape than others just as different types of damaged vehicles are taken to a body shop. Some have just a dent or two while others need a complete restoration. If we allow God to do His work, He will produce an amazingly restored and beautifully transformed life. God as the Master-Restorer has the skill to recreate any person. But, we must give ourselves to Him and allow Him to do His work.

Tonk Talk by Mark T. Tonkery

I want my children involved in Christian Camping because...

OF THE ENVIRONMENT...

The beauty and the wonder of nature in its unspoiled glory. Every person in the world should be exposed to the wonder of God's handi-work in nature. There are untold lessons to be learned, and untold good to be gained by the simple experience of communion with God and with other people in the out-of-doors. Some of our experts in the field today, tell us that the time is not far off when the experience of living in the beauty and wonder of nature, such as afforded by Christian Camping, simply will not be available. Pollution is taking its toll...man is taking his toll...and thousands and thousands of acres are hidden under concrete and asphalt every year. I want my children to love and appreciate the beauty of God's creation. Christian Camping affords that opportunity.

OF THE INFLUENCE...

The positive influence it has had on my life and the influence that I have seen it have in the lives of other people. Where else can our children experience the influence of dozens of concerned Christian adults for a week at a time? Where else can they be exposed to scores of Christians from every possible walk of life? Where else can they be exposed for 6-7 days – 24 hours a day, to dozens of other young people – much like themselves, with the same aims, goals, hopes, dreams, and problems of life – all oriented to the Christian perspective? Few other areas of Christian endeavors offer such opportunities.

OF THE TRAINING...

Christian Camping is more than a VBS out in the woods!!! It includes a real concerted effort of studying and teaching Biblical precepts. There are special classes each day in which campers do nothing but study. But over and above the "teaching" there is the Training – Training that comes from the 24 hour a day situation – Training that concerns itself, not with just 30 to 45 minutes in a class, but with every hour of the day. With all that goes on from the time one gets up in the morning until the last thought at night. Training that concerns itself with every sphere of activity and strives to be guided by principles of Godliness and Truth. The Bible says, "Train up a child in the way he should go....." Parents should want to avail themselves of every avenue available to them to help them do the best job possible in training their children. Christian Camping is one of those avenues.

OF THE FELLOWSHIP...

This area of fellowship is as sweet and precious as any of the points mentioned above. Friendships are formed at camp that will last a lifetime. You should see and feel just how close these kids get to one another in the 6 or 7 days they are together. I wish you could see the tears in their eyes on the last day of camp at closing circle – knowing that they won't be seeing each other for a while. But even more, I wish you could see the joy in their faces and hear the laughter in their voices as they enjoy being with one another through the many, varied activities of the camping day. Again I say...where else...where else can you experience this kind of fellowship? Christian Camping is certainly ONE PLACE!!! Yes, Christian Camping is a great experience for any young person. Will you make it possible for your own children (or some needy child) to attend camp? Don't just "send" your children to camp – ENCOURAGE them to go, so that they will want to go and enjoy a great week of Christian Camping.

DOUG'S DISCUSSION

Believe in Better Rewards

Academically motivated students all over the country work very hard in high school to have a good GPA and get good test scores. Their goal is to get into a good college with a scholarship. To get in these places they will study for hours. They will take practice tests on their computers. They may even beg their parents to pay for private tutoring. To have this good education they will make sacrifices, saying no to anything that gets in the way of this goal. And all this happens while another place of “higher learning” exists. If you get in this place you will learn much more than what you could discover in Harvard or Yale. “Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known” (1 Corinthians 13:12).

Those who are financially wise know that to get the most out of their money they need to make investments. So these people will put a part of their income aside and put into their retirement. This requires discipline and sacrifice but the rewards they will receive at retirement are worth it to them. All of this happens while much greater rewards exist. “But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where moth and rust do not destroy, and where thieves do not break in and steal” (Matthew 6:20).

Don't you see? People work harder for rewards on earth than they do for MUCH greater rewards in heaven! This must be a question of confidence. People have greater faith in worldly things than in the existence of heavenly ones. If someone really believes in heaven then there is no effort or sacrifice they wouldn't make to get there. If we really believe we would be willing to join the heroes of faith in Hebrews 11. “Some faced jeers and flogging, while still others were chained and put in prison. They were stoned; they were sawed in two; they were put to death by the sword. They went about in sheepskins and goatskins, destitute, persecuted and mistreated – the world was not worthy of them” (Hebrews 11:36-38). And why were they willing to go through these terrible trials for the cause of Christ? Because they loved Jesus and believed in heaven! I pray we do as well.

Minute of Meditation

Heard on 910 AM WLTP

So you're not a supermodel? Well, join the club. But, I'd understand your desire to be one considering the advantages the more attractive among us have in this world. They are more likely to be hired, more likely to be promoted, more likely to seem happy, healthy and trustworthy. That's quite the edge! The outward appearance, however, gives you no advantage with God. For, as Romans 2:11 says, "God does not show favoritism."

We are so concerned with appearance that the plastic surgery industry is worth billions, and the dieting industry is worth many billions more. Perhaps God sees all this and wishes that we would spend that kind of effort working on what is on the inside. Real beauty is seen in those whose hearts are committed to the Lord. Their kindness, gentleness, and genuine love for others is more attractive than any outward display. If you really want to be beautiful in the ways that matter, give God your heart.

I am Doug Wells with the Camden Avenue Church of Christ where you are always welcome.

Thank you for worshipping with us!

If you have any questions, please let us know. We offer informative tracts and Bible Correspondence Courses at no charge. We would also be happy to have a Bible study at your convenience.

We praise God, build each other up and encourage one another as we blend our voices, pray, partake of the Lord's Supper, and study God's Word. What a privilege we have to serve the Lord.

Our Summer Series will continue this week.
